John Deere Tractor-A-Day 2008 gives diehard Deere fans a daily dose of their green-and-yellow favorites, featuring everything from the early Waterloo Boy-era models and trusty mighty Model D to the New Generation era and beyond. Most images show greatly restored tractors, but the weekend images come straight from the John Deere archives, showing these tractors at work in the fields shortly after being introduced. Also included in this package is a replica toy tractor of one of Deere's most popular models.
