Streak of Fire Frank E Webb III

Can a nineteen-year-old girl growing up on the Navajo Reservation have the answer to stopping the United States from reigniting the Korean War? The answer is yes, if the girl is Jessica DeLucca and she possesses a gift left to her by a mysterious old woman during the Shiprock Fair parade. By accepting this gift, she immediately leaves a comfortable life of playing in a Christian rock band and is thrust into a world of political and military intrigue. While being hunted by agents around the globe who are anxious to claim this power for their own use, Jess is given on-the-fly lessons in responsibility and duty. Her father and his ex-partner, both trained in these life and death scenarios, help her to find her moral compass in dealing with evil.
