The Cry For Freedom: The Story of a Porn Addict Elisha Kolade

How can it be fun to be controlled by an act and to live in constant shame and disguise? This is the question I asked myself time and time again. It may be presented in the media as fun, but you know within yourself this is not true! As a porn addict I was consumed with the experience of guilt, fallacy and shame. These were the negative thoughts and acts I felt imprisoned with. Pornography almost destroyed my life, I was controlled and terrorised by its constant demand for my time, my thoughts and my treasures. This is a most read for all who want to live a life free of addiction.
