A Year in the Life of the Cotswolds

Set in the heart of England's countryside, the picturesque range of hills known as the Cotswolds occupies the area between Gloucester, Bath, Oxford, and Stratford-upon-Avon. In recognition of its breathtaking scenery, the 790-square-mile region was designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in 1966. Its gentle rolling hills, splendid archaeological sites, and charming villages built from local honey-colored limestone are captured in A Year in the Life of the Cotswolds, an enchanting photographic journey through this quintessentially English countryside.
