Integrity: Examining How I Live (Transforming Life Series) Center for Christian Leadership at Dalla Integrity begins with trust. Members of effective small-groups know each other well enough to begin facing and sharing those areas in which they each need transformation. They trust their struggles to dependable friends who will support them in our spiritual growth.

In book three of the TRANSFORMING LIFE series from Dallas Theological Seminary, learn how to transform your small-group community into a genuine network of support and accountability. Your group can offer resources that not even one-on-one counseling with a trained counselor can provide. In this study, you can identify ways to overcome the habits that are contrary to the values you profess as a Christian--and discover Christlike character traits you can develop and live out.
