May's Rainbow M.E. Taylor

In 1971, the days of bell-bottoms, drive-in movies, 45s, and cruisin'. The euphoria of first love in May Gaylor's life overpowered and took control of her senses. Lee enveloped her with his magnetic smile, appealing charm, and gorgeous ocean blue eyes. A rebel on a motorcycle ... what girl could defy these odds? The combination was lethal. At a young age she was in love, pregnant, and married. She dreamed of happily ever after, longing for home and family. May is sucked into an abyss of physical abuse, the violence eroding her soul and spirit. Can she overcome the bond she shares with her abuser? Taking control of her destiny and overriding the shackle on her heart are only two of the challenges she faces. Lee would not let go easily; the illusion of love propels him. Take the emotional roller coaster ride to the end of May's Rainbow.
