God Talks to Me! Joan M. Parro

One night after saying prayers, a four year old little girl asked her Grandmother a very important question. She wanted to know why she had to do all the talking to God and God never talked to her. Surprised at the question, her Grandmother gave a rather short and inadequate answer. She said sometimes after we talk to God we have to be quiet and "listen" to Him. When we listen, we get ideas and thoughts from Him that we have never thought of before. When we tell God we "love Him", we need time to picture Him in our mind that He is telling us, "He loves us too", just like when we tell our Mommy or Daddy that we love them, they always respond that they love us too. Later, the Grandmother thought she had to take more time to explain to her Granddaughter the many ways that God actually talks to us. She thought she would sit down and write examples of how lovingly God talks to us and this might help answer that very important question many people think about.
