Where We are: Design Guide to Scotland's Six Cities Emma Halliday, Stacey Hunter
This guidebook features the people and places that are creating Scotland's new design landscape. Design conscious locals, who know their cities inside out, tell you the unique places to visit, sleep, eat and shop in Scotland's six cities - Aberdeen, Dundee, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Inverness and Stirling. It focuses on design and architecture in each of Scotland's six cities alongside the strengths and successes of the Six Cities Design Festival 2007.It includes opinion pieces on current design issues, profiles of the most original and inventive Scottish designers, full city listings of where to go and what to do alongside detailed city maps. The city listings have all been compiled from recommendations received from architecture and design aware citizens creating unusual and personalised selections. Specially commissioned illustrations are included alongside a series of photographs that have been sourced and selected from Flickr. These create visual portraits of the cities illustrating the listings of where to go and what to do.
