The Story of Daniel the Prophet Stephen N. Haskell

“The Story of Daniel the Prophet,” by Stephen N. Haskell, is an Adventist classic that not only explores the Daniel’s prophecies, but makes them relevant today. The prophecies of the Bible are like rare diamonds lying hidden in the solitude of the mine. The practiced eye of the prospector discovers the gems, and intuitively reads their value; and the skillful hand of the lapidary brings out their many-faced beauties in all their sparkling glory. The prophecies of Daniel are no exception. This book has lessons for all classes. Whether studied from the point of view of a historian, chronologist, or simply a Christian in love with Jesus as the Messiah, new truths continually unfold. Readers from all professions and walks of life can trace with pleasure the providential movements by which the course of events has been controlled as rulers—whether raised up or cast down—all serve as instruments in God's hands to carry out his beneficent designs and purposes.
