In 22 years, Linda Patterson has never been allowed to celebrate Christmas. Not even once! Will her new job at a local church fulfill her dream? And what (or who?) will become her First Christmas gift?

Linda Patterson has never celebrated Christmas in her twenty-two years of life. The heartache of a stolen childhood leads her to make great changes in her life. She finds a job as an assistant clerk in a church where her desire is to enjoy the good things she was denied. Allan Campbell is the assistant pastor of a church in Oklahoma City. He's beginning to wonder whether he's serving in the right place or not because he feels that the congregation have lost their way. That is until Linda shows up with a hunger and thirst for the things of God that renews his hope for the congregation. When the two of them meet, ministry and mission work bring them closer, and their love for God leads to a growing love for each other - and to a First Christmas neither of them will ever forget!
