Forever After Necie Holland

Paris Martin is a good girl from the South Side of Anderson and the little sister of Rio, the chief lieutenant in the streets of the south. She's book smart, beautiful, and destined for success, until she meets King, who pursues her persistently, until she eventually gives him a chance. Once she stops giving him a hard time, she ends up falling hard for him, realizing that he is the love of her life. After learning that their relationship isn't accepted by her brother, who wants blood, she has to choose between being loyal to her family or following her heart. Kingston Stewart is a small time dope boy from the West Side of Anderson and the little brother of Chop, who runs the entire Westside. Falling in love with Paris at first sight, he does whatever it takes to call her his own. He eventually wins her over and falls even harder, until some shocking news threatens to ruin everything he's ever wanted. In his heart, he wants to be able to give Paris the world, but at what cost? Rio Martin and Chop Stewart absolutely hate each other; the South Side and the West Side don't get along. So what happens when two people who aren't supposed to be together fall deliriously in love??
