Kings and Concubines Matt Gale

When a group of six life-long friends learn that a member of their circle has been brutally attacked and left for dead, they're certain that it's connected to a crime they committed years ago. Although the five remaining friends are the logical suspects in the attack, things might not be what they seem. Is group patriarch and legitimate genius Max Mason behind it all, or are other forces at play? What starts as a mystery, quickly turns into a psychological thriller, before culminating into a full-on quest for revenge. Kings and Concubines takes the reader on a fast paced journey for truth and teaches the importance of being a wolf among a society of lap-dogs.
