Andrew The Tadpole Becomes A Frog Caroline Wood

Andrew the tadpole becomes a frog is about a tadpole named Andrew who lives in the pond in Mr. Cobb's meadow. He loves living in the pond and does not like change. When he learns he is becoming a frog he is very upset. Andrew is a type of tadpole that takes eight months to become a frog. This story will teach children how tadpoles become frogs. It will teach that change comes to everyone, and that change although scary can be a good thing. Andrew's friend Donald helps him through the change and helps him adjust. So this story also teaches about the value of friendship. This is a story you and your child will enjoy sharing for generations.
