After serving three years in prison, Cynthia “Cyn” Jordan was back on the streets and determined to never see the inside of a prison again. She had settled in to her broke life as a fast food worker with gangsta dreams, when the son of the largest and most powerful drug trafficker the world has ever known landed in the back seat of her car and changed everything. To show his gratitude for Cyn saving his son’s life, Emilio Montoya presented her with the opportunity of a lifetime. Cyn immediately recruited her two gun slinging cousins, Jade and Ruby, and the ladies went to work on building their empire. As their territory expanded, so did their list of enemies, but they were built Ford tough and didn’t hesitate to establish that they were not to be messed with. When a drought comes to south Florida, Cyn is the only player in the game with product, and this does not sit well with her competition. As she moves to take over their territories, they form a plan to get rid of Cyn and her crew once and for all. Ride along with Cyn, Ruby, and Jade as they fight to hold on to their business and their lives, while staying a step ahead of the DEA. Will the three cocaine divas ride over their enemies or will their reign come to an end as quickly as it started?
