Five Stars (out of Five)

"David Wood's Best Résumé Book is a mere ninety one pages, but what it lacks in bulk it makes up for in useful content"

br>"Wood also includes a section for the recent college graduate, with advice that will be especially useful in current economic conditions."

"It is refreshing to see a business book that is written with a minimum of extraneous material. Wood's resume-writing "secrets" are sure to be of value to both novice and experienced job seekers. With the Best Résumé Book in hand, a job seeker should dramatically improve his or her chances of getting that résumé on the top of the pile."

Independent Review by KIRKUS Discoveries

"Just in time for the Great Recession comes this savvy insider's guide to writing a standout résumé.....His tips are eye-opening and even contrarian, but always practical....Wood's no-nonsense advice and lucid plain-spoken style will give readers the tools and confidence they need to get cracking on a more effective job search. A useful and reassuring how-to manual."
