Dancin' Penelope Dyan

This is a book of poems for girls who love to dance, and it was written for a very special little girl who has music in her heart and dance in her soul. Full of love and whimsy, Penelope Dyan has done it again; and she has produced a delightful little book, perfect for carrying along in your favorite dancer's dance bag. This book is certain to be enjoyed by dancers of all ages, young and old, and by anyone who appreciates dance. It is a book your dancer will cherish because like the true art of dance, this book came from the heart. Penelope Dyan has written several books of poetry for children, and as a former teacher, a mother and a grandmother, she has exhibited her love for children once again in the pages of this wonderful book. Add this book to your Penelope Dyan poetry books for kids collection!
