Stories of the Outback Bert Bolton

Stories of the outback and famous Australians have a special place in many of our hearts. This collection from well-known outback man and tour company entrepreneur Bert Bolton shares the adventurous, cunning and good-will of some of the most famous outback names. From the exploits of outback hero Ernest Giles, to the exciting life of gambler Harry Redford, and the trails of Sister Ruth - whose story and deeds of sacrifice in this country are as prominent as Florence Nightingale, these are the stories of people who lived and breathed the outback. With an introduction from Australian legend Rolf Harris, these short and lively stories will enliven the outback spirit in you.
