Prison Without Bars: Forgiveness Holds the Key Deb Deaton

Prison Without Bars is an inspiring story of forgiveness and hope. Many of us live our lives locked in invisible prisons as a result of fear, shame and guilt. Finally, Deb Deaton has the courage to share her awe inspiring journey, allowing us to sit ringside and watch as she triumphs with exceptional grace and fortitude in spite of severe mental, emotional and physical abuse at home.

Deb was a national champion archer with her father. She was a competitive gymnast just missing the 1976 Olympics. And then, she worked directly with Mr. Bill Gates to develop training for over 25,000 Microsoft employees. There's more, and it's all in the book.

Deb is an incredible person of great beauty and strength. Given her Native American heritage, it is no surprise that Deb also possesses incredible insight into people and animals. Her deep connection to Scottie, an abused horse who rescued her as much as she rescued him, was deeply spiritual and is now timeless. Together, they shared a bond that brought both of them tremendous healing.

If you've ever been through challenging times and risen up, you will love Prison Without Bars.
