Her whole life crumbling beneath her...grief, broken promises, unwanted proposals...how does she know that leaving all this behind will be any better?

Avery is a man on a mission. He needs a mother for his two daughters and as such applies in the personal section to get the best mail order bride there is. He isn't looking for love, just someone to call a wife while she makes sure that his two daughters are well taken care of. What he didn't bargain for was how beautiful she would be and how her emerald eyes could evoke such strong emotions he thought he had given up long ago...

Emerald is seeking an avenue of escape from a life of hopelessness brought on by unfortunate events. When she answered the ad sent by Avery, it felt like the right thing to do and when she meets him and his two daughters nothing could prepare her for the feelings he evoked in her and as she fights to gain the trust of the oldest daughter she also fights to gain the heart of a man who swore he would never love again. Will he continue to be wholeheartedly devoted to his deceased wife, or will he open his heart to Emerald...
