Bed and breakfast accommodations have become popular with the modern traveler for many reasons: interesting architecture, fascinating history, friendly hosts, scenic surroundings, and tasty, often sumptuous breakfasts. Here is a series of guidebooks to meet the needs of today's non-traditional traveler. The places selected for each Guide represent the most memorable examples of bed and breakfasts in the areas covered by the book. The variety of establishments is remarkable: from historically significant lodging and delightful private homes to an enticing selection of relaxed inns. Full-color photos give you a real feel for the accommodations provided.
