The New Sartre Nik Farrell Fox

Jean Paul Sartre is still widely regarded as France's most famous and influential philosopher. Yet, to many, his work has been superseded by the work of subsequent poststructuralist and postmodernist philosophers such as Michel Foucault, Jacques Derrida, Jean Baudrillard and Gilles Deleuze. The New Sartre presents a radical reassessment of Sartre's work, the first systematic study of Sartre's relationship to postmodernism. This fundamental reevaluation of one of the central figures of 20th Century thought highlights the critical value and enduring relevance of Sartre's work to our postmodern times.
