New Year Bride: A Gift for Christopher Terri Grace

Christopher Morton is no stranger to tragedy. Scornfully treated and abused by an unthankful wife, it is only his love for his beautiful little daughter who gives him the will to live. When his wife dies he flees with 12-year-old Cindy to New Mexico, a broken man. But Cindy has a plan to revive the heart of her harrowed father. She orchestrates a simple deception that brings a would-be bride to her father's doorstep just in time for new year. Kimberley Crawford almost turns tail when she discovers the girl's scheme, but decides to stay when she realizes how desperate little Cindy is to help her pa. The story that unfolds is one of new beginnings for everyone involved. Brides For All Seasons Vol. II is a beautiful historical holiday romance series. Each book in the collection is a standalone story designed to warm your heart with seasonal love and romantic adventure.
