New York's Finest (1st part of the Trilogy) Kiki Swinson

Hailing from the streets of New York, Naomi Foxx worked as a flight attendant for America's Airways for five years. Throughout her years of travels Naomi has seen the world and been in the company of some very wealthy and powerful men. Because of her connections, she helped her brother Reggie Foxx orchestrate his illegal drug smuggling operation. She had a few TSA agents, bag handlers and a couple of mules on the payroll so she saw her financial empire triple in no time. What Naomi didn't see was a sudden turn of events that will force her to do things she never thought she would do. And one by one, everyone in Reggie's organization will either end up behind bars or disappear altogether. Once Naomi realizes this, she escapes into hiding. With loads of cash in hand, a passport and a visa, Naomi has to make the decision about whether she needs to flee the country before her life end up in the wrong hands.
