Strong Family, Strong Child (Single Parent Wisdom) Julie Prescott

Every child needs the support of those around him. In this book from the Single Parent Wisdom series, you'll find tips on how to make your child feel connected no matter what form your family takes. What is normal child behavior? Are my expectations realistic? Other subjects discussed in this easy-to-read book: spend just us time with each child; remove chaos in your family's life; solve family problems together; plan for a future; ask for help until you get it. Regular Family Meetings help to distribute chores, establish house rules, plan family fun, and even plan meals. Over 50 men and women share their wisdom of what worked and what didn't during their years as single parents. Now with children grown, they can reflect on that time to provide answers to the questions that bothered them. Plus, they answer the phrase: If only I knew then, what I know now.... Wisdom everyone can benefit who is involved in the life of a child.
