Jeffrey Ross wouldn't know a miracle if it hit him in the face. Man's belief in a God was mythical, at least that was the way he had always felt. And he knew for a fact there would be no End Times events like his aunt and his mother always pumped into his head, scaring him and his brother to death. Then one night Melissa disappeared, right in front of his eyes; and there were many witnesses that night on the Jamaican beach. That would make anyone a believer, he figured. Jeff, suddenly hit with reality and accusations that he killed Melissa, began to notice his mother's predictions were coming true, only they weren't Mom's predictions. They came right out of the Bible: It would get much warmer; there would be wars everywhere; weather would become unprecedented; people would suffer beheadings; asteroids would start crashing into Earth... and the plagues. It was all happening. Follow JL Robb as he weaves a titillating end-times tale of mystery and intrigue that Hollywood has tried but failed to produce, a story that incorporates Judaism, Christianity, Islam and atheism in what leads to the Final Conflict on the Plains of Armageddon in Israel, just as foretold by the Prophets of Old. A different take on an ancient story that will keep the reader glued to the edge of the seat, until The End. You may find yourself thinking differently about a few things.
