Penser la guerre, Clausewitz (French Edition)

J'ai lu De la guerre pour la première fois il y a une vingtaine d'années, puis je l'ai cité comme tout le monde. En 1971-1972, j'étudiais l'ensemble des écrits militaires, politiques, personnels de Clausewitz et crus constater que la pensée du plus célèbre des stratèges restait à découvrir et à comprendre», écrit Raymond Aron en 1976. La pensée de Carl von Clausewitz retrouve ici sa dimension essentielle : être une théorie en devenir, qui jamais ne trouva sa forme définitive, puisque le général prussien, né en 1780, mourut en 1831, victime du choléra. Dans ce premier tome, Raymond Aron reconstruit, avec la rigueur qu'on lui connaît, le système intellectuel de celui qui voulut mettre à jour l'esprit, c'est-à-dire la nature et l'essence, de la guerre, «véritable caméléon». Formation du système, tendances divergentes, synthèse finale, équivoque irréductible, rapport à Montesquieu, à Kant ou à Hegel - sur tous ces sujets Aron formule ses analyses qu'il confronte aux jugements des critiques allemands.
